May 7, 2014 – Asheboro, NC – Randolph Telephone selected seven local high school seniors to receive $7,000 in College Scholarships. Randolph Telephone's General Scholarship Program was established for the benefit of its members' families as a means of encouraging young people in their pursuit of learning and their efforts to improve the lives of themselves, their families, and their communities.

"Education is essential to any student's future and Randolph Telephone is pleased to be able to help students from our community obtain a college education. We consider our Scholarship Program to be an investment in the future growth, development, and well-being of our customers' families and the entire community we serve," said Frankie Cagle, CEO & General Manager.

Randolph Telephone has given more than $90,000 in scholarships since 1995 through its annual scholarship program. This year's General Scholarship winners are:

- Graham Andrew Jones of Chatham Central High School
- Devon McKenzie Collins of Southeast Guilford High School
- Brittany Nicole Stout of Eastern Randolph High School
- Treece Eugene Hogan of Southwestern Randolph High School
- Melenni Renee Balbach of Southern Alamance High School
- Claudia Cristal Gasca-Abella of North Moore High School
- Owen Andrew Brady of North Moore High School
